

PLU 10th Annual Middle and High School Programming Contest February 2020 Contest Results

The Tenth Annual Pacific Lutheran University Middle and High School Programming Contest was held Saturday, February 1st, at the Morken Center for Learning and Technology.

Forty-two teams registered for the contest with 94 students from 29 schools competing for awards and prizes. More information about the contest (e.g., scoreboard, pictures, and problems) can be found at <https://www.plu.edu/computer-science/hs-prog-contest/>

Congratulations to the following teams:

Advanced Category:

1st Place – Redmond High School – Team: Purr-mutations
(11 problems in 584 minutes)

2nd Place - Tesla STEM Highschool– Team: void
(11 problems 586 in minutes)

3rd Place – Liberty High School – Team: !dlroW ,olleH
(10 problems in 499 minutes)

Novice Category:

1st Place – Interlake High School – Team: ProCoderz
(8 problems in 963 minutes)

2nd Place – Skyline High School – Team: ka
(7 problems in 710 minutes)

3rd Place – STEP Computer Academy – Team: ppHeads
(6 problems in 475 minutes)

All the winning teams received engraved medals and the top team in the advanced category won a perpetual trophy that is engraved with their names and the name of their high school. The winning team will retain the trophy until September to be displayed at their high school.

This year the top represented school for the second year in a row was Skyline High School with 8 teams. Many thanks to all the schools, students, and coaches for their participation.

Anacortes High School
Ballard High School
Bellevue Middle School
Bishop Blanchet High School
Curtis Senior High X SAMI
East Lake High School
Ellensburg High School
Evergreen Middle School
Garfield High School

Henry M Jackson High School
HyCap Academy
International Community School
Interlake High School
Islander Middle School
Issaquah High School
Kamiak High School
Lake Washington High School
Lakeside School
Liberty High School
Meadowdale High School
Newport High School
Odle Middle School
Prime Factor School Math Circle
Redmond Middle School
Skyline High School
STEP Computer Academy
Tesla STEM High School
The Bear Creek School
Washington Preparatory School

The PLU High School Programming contest takes place the first or second Saturday in February at the Morken Center for Learning and Technology. The contest sponsors include the PLU CS Department, Hewlett Packard, Microsoft Corporation, McNeel & Associates, and many generous alumni. With a special thanks to Nate Yocom

For further information visit the web site www.plu.edu/computer-science/ or contact Dr. Kenneth Blaha by email blahakd@plu.edu or by phone (253) 535-8702.